RIVER NEWS.

The Fallie is laid up with a broken shaft.

The Virginia will be down tonight from Pittsburgh.

The Avalon will pass down from Pomeroy tonight.

The Henry M. Stanley will be up tonight for Pomeroy.

The large log by the Pacific was loaded with 800 tons of aluminum ore.

The Ironides ran through here at Portsmouth, and is there being repaired.

The towboat Joe B. Williams has a steel shaft in her wheel that has been in use seventeen years.

There is a steady decline in the river and owing to the cold snap it is more than likely that another week will not see the Pittsburgh packets running.

The rule said to have been adopted by the Coal Combine is not being strictly enforced, as the Tornado, a 17-inch cylinder boat, passed down with a tow.

No coal was shipped from Pittsburgh Saturday, there being no boats in port to take it out. The coal was all shipped South on the last water, and as there is not enough to ship coal at the present rate of the river, it will have to do without until another rise comes along.

The Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company has shipped South since December 13th 875 barges and 912 coalboats, containing 2,500,000 barrels of coal. Navigation was resumed on December 13th. The same concern has also shipped South 10,000 tons of steel rails, besides several thousand tons of wire and nails, and much of the latter product is being loaded.

There is much dispute whether the 34th century begins this or some other year, but all agree that Trax's fleet, made and sold by the F. H. Trax Co., and the leading grocers of this city, is the best on earth.

Deacons of Outcasts For Cures That Contain Mercury.

As mercury is so deadly a poison, and so completely destroys the whole system when it enters it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do to the body is so great that they will be found to be more costly than any other medicine.

For February, Collector Roberts has been appointed at Pomeroy, Pa., and John H. Dagley, Storekeeper, H. G. Holliday, Gauger at the H. E. Pogue Distillery; Oscar Grigsby, Storekeeper at Pomeroy, Pa., and W. West, Storekeeper-Gauger at J. H. Rogers & Co.

Save doctors' bills by giving Foley's Honey of Tor to infants and children in time to prevent colic, whooping cough, which are fatal to many thousands of babies. J. J. Wood & Son and Armstrong & Co.

Mr. Louis Metzger will hereafter have charge of the city subscription list of THE LEADER, and he is fully authorized to make contracts for subscriptions and for advertising and to receipt for money. He is a bright and energetic young gentleman and deserves support and encouragement.

Tables' Buckeye Oil Planting is the only remedy for blind, bleeding or protruding piles, induced by physicians, cures the most obstinate cases. Price 25 cents in bottles, 50 cents. J. J. Wood & Son.

In the case of Walker & Sengstak vs. H. Feltman & Co. from this county, an amended statement has been submitted in the Court of Appeals. J. W. Alexander was made a party appellee, entered his appearance and the case is now heard with David vs. Feltman Co., briefly filed to apply to both cases.

Persons who had a life of exposure are subject to rheumatism, neuralgia and indigestion will find a valuable remedy in Ballard's KIDNEY LINTIMENT. It will soothe and soothe inflammation. Price 25 and 50 cents. J. J. Wood & Son.
